

Egypt Oil and Gas Report

Introduction

Egypt boasts one of the oldest oil & gas industries in the world and yet still offers many opportunities for existing companies operating within the country and for those companies looking for new areas. Egypt offers political stability, well developed infrastructure a comprehensive and investor friendly legislative framework, numerous farm in opportunities, and exciting exploration acreage.

Operators working in Egypt have discovered that Egypt offers opportunities that many larger oil and gas producing countries cannot match. The country's state energy company, EGPC, is one of the most well established and experienced in Africa, and Egypt's strategic location and it's proximity to important markets and close ties with Europe make it a haven for investment in both the upstream and downstream sectors.

The Egypt Oil & Gas Report provides essential information for individuals and companies looking to expand their investment in Egypt's hydrocarbon sector or invest for the first time. The report will provide useful information for E&P companies, oilfield service companies, refiners, and other hydrocarbon sector professionals by:

- * Providing important details about Egypt's legal framework regarding the local oil and gas industry
- * Providing essential information about the structure and policies of the state energy company, EGPC
- * Supplying up to date information on the important Natural Gas Sector
- * Giving comprehensive information about current upstream and downstream activities within Egypt
- * Providing in depth political and economic background to help familiarize companies and individuals with the economic and social factors that could affect market participation

Ensure you and your company remain on the cutting edge of the energy industry with our in depth analysis and risk assessment reports. Whether you're just entering the Egyptian market or have been established there for decades, the Egypt Oil & Gas Report has the data and analysis is you need to estimate the risks, spot the opportunities, and stay ahead of the game
